

At The Creek

Pastor's Note

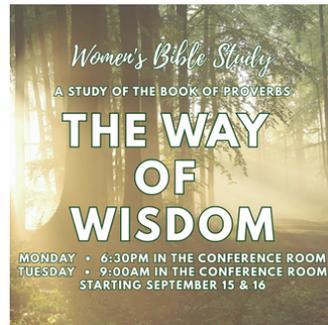

Elk Creek family! This month as we move towards Thanksgiving there is so much to be thankful for! First, I am so grateful for our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. His sacrifice on the cross for us and the free gift of salvation through Him is an unmeasurable love that I will never fully understand. Second, I am so grateful for my family. Ricki, Zach, Jeremiah, and Ashley, I love you all so very much! Third, I'm grateful for my church family. As we are learning in this sermon series, This is the Church, this is God's household and His family built and fit together through the Holy Spirit (Eph 2:19-22). We are God's family Elk Creek Church, and when I am with you it absolutely feels like home! I hope this Thanksgiving season, you will take the opportunity to take inventory of what you are thankful for. Even in times of difficulty, God is at work. This family at Elk Creek Church is here for you, to care for you, to pray with you, and to worship with you. I can't wait to be with you Sunday!

-Pastor Ryan
